"NCRC Site Orientation"

NCRC Site Orientation
NCRC is very excited to announce our new Site Orientation! This orientation is a great opportunity for new and existing groups at NCRC to learn more about building access, safety and security, maintenance requests, mail services, parking and transportation, research services, and much more.

Site orientation will be held January 29th and January 31 in the Research Auditorium of Building 10, 1st floor. There are plans to have recurring orientations in the AM and PM every three weeks.

We look forward to seeing you there!
