We are very excited to announce the release of the NCRC Annual Report 2013. We would also like to thank every single group, department and community member here at NCRC for your contributions to this report.

“Our commitments to collaboration and partnerships, to state of the art research and lab space, and to supporting complex research programs build on the University of Michigan’s ability to attract the most excellent and innovative researchers, programs, and private companies in the world, and make possible advances in research that can translate valuable research discoveries into better human health.”
